SNAPSHOTS OF ENCAMPMENT VISITORS

Street scenes caught by the camera yesterday in connection with the encampment activities. In the lower right-hand corner is shown the reviewing stand erected in Main street just below the Ter forced after last night.

Numerous visitors from Salt Lake saw guard mount yesterday. Reveille will be sounded at 5:30 o'clock and taps at 10:15.

Companies C and H with band and signal corps arrived in camp yesterday morning and the second battalion from Manti got in later in the day.

The signal corps spent its time in establishing lines of communication and experiments with the wireless outfit. It was announced last evening that this morning all the telephones would be in working order and the rendezvous in perfect military condition. Camp will be

CERTIFICATES

The 6 per cent Mortgage Certificates of this company are especial suited to those investors who are not experts in real estate values or have not the facilities for selecting Mortgages. Investors in these Certificates are doubly secured-by real estate worth double the amount of their investment and by our

Salt Lake Security & Trust Company

32 Up. Main Street Capital $300,000.00 Surplus $100,000.00

COMRADES PERFORM LAST RITES FOR FRANK HOFFMAN

National Guard and Battalion of Regulars Get Taste of Camp Life.

While the members of James B. Mc-kean post, G. A. R., of this city were in the midst of prep_rations for the festivites of the annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, which begins today, it became necessary yesterday afternoon to pause and perform the last sad rites for a departed comrade. While Salt Lake City was bedecked with national colors and while hundreds of veterans thronged the streets, the body of their comrade of Frank Hoffman, a resident of Utah for over forty years, a member of the Grand Army and at one time commander of the Grand Army and at one time commander of the Grand Army and at one time commander of the Grand Army and at one time commander of the Grand Army and at one time commander of the Grand Army and at one time commander of the Grand Army and at one time commander of the Grand Army and at one time commander of the Grand Army and at one time commander of the Grand Army and at one time commander of the Grand Army and at one time commander of the Grand Army and at one time commander of the Grand Army and at one time commander of the Grand Army and at one time commander of the Grand Army and at one time commander of the Grand Army and at one time commander of the Grand Army and at one time commander of the Grand Army and at one time commander of the Grand Army and at one time commander of the Grand Army and at one time commander of the Grand Army and at one time commander of the Grand Army and at one time commander of the Grand Army and at one time commander of the Grand Army and at one time commander of the Grand Army of the salt Lake City was bedecked with national colors and while hundreds of veterans thronged the streets, the body of the recommander over the body of their commander over the body of the commander over the body of their commander o

War Comrades Meet on Street For First Time in Forty Years

n. Utah. They met, just as thousands of other en have come together in the encampents that stretch back into the years-Luch stopped yesterday early in the afternoon before the little bench where L. F. Donnell, an old soldier, makes regimental badges for the G. A. R. men. Linch ordered a badge made for Company A. First Arkansas. Donnell said Linch ordered a badge inductor.

A. First Arkansas. Donnell said he would have it ready, in a half-hour and Linch promised to return. Donnel made the badge and laid it on his coun-

Donnell Still Making Encampment Badges

L. F. O'Donnell of Chicago fought through the war with the Sixty-fourth Ohio infantry and was discharged in '65. Since then he has attended twenty-six

Since then he has attended twenty-six encampments. At twenty of these encampments he has made regimental badges for his comrades, the badges telling the company and regiment each served in during the war.

"And just to show you how the men come back year after year to these encampments. I have had four men here so far today for whom I made badges in St. Louis over twenty years ago," he declared Sunday afternoon.

McCoy's, livery, carriage and light livery. Both phones $1.

THE GILLETTE POCKET EDITION RAZOR

is the most convenient yet complete safety razor ever put out. Its compact form has not caused any of its usefulness to be sacri-

$5 and up.

SCHRAMM'S

WHERE THE CARS STOP. Razor Shopp. Gillette Razor Agency.

Boy at Home in Both War Camps

The men who fought in gray and idolized Stonewall Jackson have found a little harbor for their memories in Salt Lake this week. They hadn't expected to find it and, incidentally, are being treated to some picket running stories that are among the best.

W. D. Mathis, proprietor of the Mathis drug store on lower Main street, is the son of G. W. Mathis, deceased, who fought through the war wearing the gray fought through the war wearing the gray of a North Carolina regiment. G. W. Mathis and his wife, a Dameron before her marriage, one of the old North Carolina families, were both second cousins beginners with the wireless outfile. It was amounted hast evening that the working endeavous in perfect military condition. Camp will be assumed and the rendeavous in perfect military condition. Camp will be guardiness and the rendeavous in perfect military condition. Camp will be guardiness and the rendeavous in the perfect military condition. Camp will be part in the parade.

Zion's Savings Bank & Trust Co.

Transacts a general trust business and pays 4 per cent interest on savings deposits. Joseph F. Smith, president, Ark, in 185.

Commencing, Sunday morning, Aug 8, THE LUTYNE CAFE will serve breakfast. Everything in season and the resultance of the best time marked frozen and to the best time marked frozen and the resultance of the purpose of their worth, regiled Domnell.

Tribune-Reporter Printing Co., 66 West Second South Phones 718.

Tipune-Reporter Printing Co., 66 West Second South Phones 718.

THE GILLETTE

THE thin, bony hands clenched to the was a manual trust business and part of the pa

Days Hidden in Mud

J. N. Roberson of Company C, Fifty-sixth Georgia volunteers, Confederate army, laid on his stomach in a slough on the banks of the Yazoo river before army, laid on his stomach in a slough on the banks of the Yazoo river before Vicksburg as long as he could during two July days during the siege, and when he couldn't stand it in that position any longer he turned on his back, being mighty careful when making the change that no Union men were going up or down the river in front of him or the bay on the other side in boats.

He was so covered with mud that he looked like a log, and that's what the Union soldiers thought he was, or he probably wouldn't have been telling his story to a group of amused veterans in front of the Wilson Sunday afternoon.

Roberson served through the war on the Confederate side and he is one of the three or four men in gray here for the encampiment.

He was with Bragg all through Kenencampment.

He was with Bragg all through Kentucky, at Lookout Mountain, all through the Vicksburg siege, and is strong and Removal. Weber & Olson, lawyers, removed to 1121 Boston building. Do you kodak? We finish and also cell the supplies. Salt Lake Photo Supply Co, 142 Main street. Today you select from those splendid $22.50 suits at only

$10.85

It's the suit sale of the year—more values here for the money than ever offered before. We're trying to close out our summer suits in two Llays-this price will make 'em fly.

Blues, blacks and fancies in two and three-piece styles

MASATCH

Mysterious Potentate and Resplendent Retainers to Give Magnificent Parade.

and perfected the last plans. Several men delegated to procure horses for the parade reported that they had made good —that together they had arranged for about sixty animals.

Others will ride their own steeds, so that there will probably be in the neighborhood of eighty riders in the parade.

The riders are to meet at 8 o'clock at the Odeon hall, where arrangements have been made for checking their clothing and receiving their costumes. The parade will not start until 8:45 or 9 o'clock.

It Was a Dark and Stormy Night

Mathis and his wife, a Dameron before her marriage, one of the old North Carolina families, were both second cousins of Stonewall Jackson's, while Mrs. Mathis brought up from a baby Sterling Price, the fiery young southerner who led a command of skirmishers gallantly through the war.

Living in Missouri when that state was the home of both the boys in bine and the boys in gray, when the flag over his home was one day of the north and the next day of the south, according to the home was one day of the north and the next day of the south, according to the latest arrival of troopers, W. D. Mathis, then 12 or 13 years old, experienced several exciting months.

"I saw Stonewall Jackson in campalong the Mississippi about Marysville, but was almost too young to give him more than passing notice," said Mr. Mathis. "With my father and one brother-in-law, who wore the gray, and another brother-in-law wearing the blue, in the south of the south of the spent while on the Guntown raid in western Tennessee. It was a dark and stormy night and the tents had been blown away. Hume took of them. Some of his comrades, wanting a fire, pulled his bed from under him. They considered warmth more important than sleep.

Hume is one of the guards at national headquarters during the encampment.

If you are pleased, then we are satisfied, for your satisfaction is the measure of our success. We have pleased so many people for so many years that our reputation for success and reliability is established.

Well, Look Who's Here, Col. Heigho of Idaho!

Colonel Edgar M. Heigho of Weise da., is in the city in all his glory. He is member of the governor's staff of Ida to and comes to the encampment as ositions before and is sure to make good. Colonel Heigho is a unique figure among It is all arranged. The last plans have been made. Tonight Hatu, the Wizard of the Wasatch, will be in Salt Lake. He will arrive about 3 o'clock and will be the Wasatch, will be in Salt Lake. He will arrive about 9 o'clock and will be met somewhere in the vicinity of the Pioneer monument by a large retinue of mounted dominoed wards, slaves, sprites, gnomes and citizens.

A gorgeous and mysterious parade will be held, marching down Main street and countermarching back to the monument, where the Wizard will address some remarks to his followers, speaking his pleasure or displeasure regarding the preparations made for the G. A. R. encampment and giving any advice or suggestions that he may deem advisable. Then he will fade away.

A large number of wards met at 1:30 o'clock at the Commercial ciub yesterday and perfected the last plans. Several men delegated to procure horses for the

Maryland Delegation Sounds Cheerful Note

Thirty veterans of the G. A. R. and a delegation of women belonging to the W. R. C. of Maryland arrived in Salt Lake yesterday, just one hour behind their scheduled time. They said the trip was very enjoyable and that they arrived in Salt Lake feeling just as fresh as when they left their little state on the Atlantic seaboard. They have established Maryland headquarters in suite 148 at the New land headquarters in suite 148 at the New Wilson. There the reporter met Colonel B. F. Taylor, department commander,

Mrs. Robert Sundstrom is president of the Maryland department, W. R. C., and she, too, is very enthusiastic regarding the prospects of a very enjoyable encampment. She said:

"We have come a long way to Salt Lake City. They told us it was too far; that we would be all in when we got here; that there wouldn't be any ambition left

Since he has arrived in the city he has not been in one place longer than ten minutes, except while he was sleeping, and although he arrived late Saturday night, he had at noon yesterday familiarized himself with about everything worth seeing in the city, and was figuring on going to the Garfield smelter, Fort Douglas, Murray and Saltair during the afternoon.

noon.

If anybody gets the worth of his money out of this encampment it would be safe to make a book that Colonel Phil Cheek

BIG PAVING CONTRACTS TO BE AWARDED FRIDAY

More blg contracts for improvements will be handed out by the city board of works on Friday evening next. Among these will be the awarding of the paving of two streets, amounting to $34,-24.67. These are West Temple between Fifth and Ninth South, and Fifth South from First West to Second West. The extension, which is known as paving extension No. 54, will have a total length of five blocks. The city's portion of the work is $20,508.67 and the property owners will pay the balance of $63,756.

Commencing Sunday morning, Aug. 8, THE LOUVRE CAFE will serve breakfast. Everything in season and the best the market affords.

Automobile parties going to the Salt Palace may use the main entrance.

Sound the Tocsin, Beat the Drum,

Grand Army Veterans' Day Has Come.

accept your deposits and if any of you

We transact a general banking busi-We execute trusts and furnish ab-

We rent safe deposit boxes. We write surety bonds We issue drafts good all over Amer-

Utah Savings & Trust Co

235 South Main Street, IN THE BUSINESS HEART

Headquarters Ohio W. R. C. at Kenyon

Mary C. Wentzel, president of the department of Ohio, W. R. C., and Nettle G. Greenfield, acting as chief of staff, are ocated in suite 61 at the Kenyon and are there establishing their headquarters. The reporter found them yesterday decorating the rooms in preparation for being open today.

Mrs. Wentzel said that a large number of Ohio delegates arrived on the train that brought them here and said that the trip from Cincinnati had been delightful J. Corey Winans, chief of staff of the Ohio department, G. A. R., a railroad man, had charge of the party, and to him they gave much credit for the comfortable journey.

journey.

"We have not yet had time to see your city," said Mrs. Winans, "but we are greatly pleased with what little we have seen. We visited the temple grounds this maximum. The decorations visible on ais morning. The decorations visible very hand are very beautiful and we ertain that this encampment will been held. We will be ready tomorrow to meet all Ohio people here."

The Ohio delegates have no candidate present for election to any of the or will support. Notice.

gates have not yet been mustered, so it is not possible yet to state whom they

Commencing Sunday morning, Aug., THE LOUVRE CAFE will serve the best the market affords.

Salt Lake Photo Supply Co., 142 Main

Kodak Finishing.

Don't treat your feet this way

Walk-Overs

They give plenty of toe room.

177 MAIN.